RETIRING STAFF

The fleeting time has taken us unawares and the passage of time forces us to bid farewell to some of the stalwarts of the college.

Rev. Sr.Dr. T. Nirmala is one of the most successful Principals, JAC has ever had. In the long line of illustrious Principals who have lead the college in excellence, Sister Nirmala had been a radiant gem adding glint and gleam to the glorious diadem. She is an erudite educator, passionate researcher, enthusiastic teacher and a leader who lead through examples. She is known for her care and concern towards student welfare and her unfaltering reach for excellence.

Sister is an alumna of our college and the first sister of St. Anne's Congregation to procure her Doctoral Degree. Her Ph.D thesis submitted to Bharathiar University was awarded Gold Medal for the Best Ph.D thesis in Zoology during the year 2001-2002. She has an experience of prodigious 32 years as a teacher. Her keen academic acumen and management skills brought her the posts of Vice Principal and then the Principal of the College. She had performed her peerless contribution in prestigious portfolios and positions like the Co-ordinator of Fine Arts, Joint Director of SARWODEEP, NSS Programme Officer, Hostel Warden, College Governing Body Member, Consultant of Palani Hills Bird Watchers Society, President of Xavier Board of Higher Education in Tamil Nadu region and NAAC Assessor of NAAC office. She is the founder of the Avian Club. She had been selected and functioned as the Executive Council member of Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal. She had undertaken and competently completed a major and a minor research project by UGC and had published 12 books.

During her tenure as Principal, the college was reaccredited by NAAC with the highest score of 3.36. It is with her great efforts that the college received funding from DST-FIST, sanctioning of Community College by UGC. She effectively succeeded in tapping maximum resources from various agencies.

Sister is the recipient of various esteemed awards which includes Indira Gandhi Best Women Achievers Award and Best Principal Award. She has served as the peer team member for NAAC visit at Government Degree College Telangana.

Sister is ever open to innovations and a meticulous planner. Words fail to scale the summit of her achievement and contributions to the development of the college. There is no retirement for her unquenchable thirst for knowledge and her Ulyssian spirit to strive, to seek, to find and not to yield.

Dr. Delphin Prema Dhanaseeli, Head and Associate Professor of History is a dedicated teacher and a great inspiration to her students. She is a prayerful person who has strong faith in God at all times. She is responsible, hardworking, plans everything meticulously and performs her duties so conscientiously. Her unassuming personality and ever approachable attitude belies a monumental 32 years of service. She has served highly esteemed portfolios such as Dean of Academics, NSS Programme Officer, IQAC Member, SSR Steering Committee member, Staff Club Treasurer and Staff Advisor of Gandhian Thoughts, Students Service League and Fine Arts. She has shared her immense intellectual resources for the betterment of the college and by serving as the resource person in various institutions. As fruits of her rigorous academic efforts, she has completed a minor project, produced a Ph.D scholar, convened conferences and published a book. During her tenure as the Dean of Academics, she extended her relentless support to the then Principal in preparing the proposals and getting them sanctioned.

She is an able Head of the Department, a loveable colleague, a kind teacher and an efficient research guide. She has the amazing ability to adjust and adapt according to the circumstances. She helps the students in their intellectual growth and offers financial aid to deserving students too. She moulds others to lead a life in a positive way.

Dr. Arokiam Thaddeus, Associate Professor of Zoology is a person who attaches practical significance to the finer aspirations. She carries out her duties calmly without rejecting any obligations. She is one who catches gleams of spiritual knowledge, true to perceive providence in every phase of education. She manifests energy, integrity, and diligence to do anything that needs to be done. She takes inconveniences and hardships in stride and adapts herself to new climates and new society. By patience and perseverance, she can reach people where they are.

During her exemplary 31 years of service at JAC she has contributed astoundingly to the department and college as well. Her contribution as Vice Principal, Head of the Department, coordinator of Foundation/ Value Education courses, NSS Programme Officer, Fine Arts Coordinator, Staff Club Secretary and as members in various associations is highly commendable. During her tenure as Head of the Department of Zoology, she has proven to be an astute administrator with the interest of students as the foremost priority. She has organised various seminars and workshops. She has shared her rich intellectual resources for the betterment of the college and by serving as the resource person in various institutions. Her research contribution is exemplary with numerous presentations, publications and completion of one major research project funded by UGC. Under her renowned supervision one scholar has been awarded Ph.D, another has submitted her thesis and two are pursuing research.

She is a gifted singer who has enthusiastically lent her melodious voice and cheerful coordinating skills to our college choir for many decades now.

Truly her record is trailblazing bearing testimony to her unrestrained passion for learning, teaching, research and administrative abilities. Kind, approachable, warm, compassionate and prayerful, Dr. Arokiam Thaddeus is an asset to the college and a much loved child of God.

Mrs. Arul Sahaya Sundari, non-teaching staff and the lab assistant of the Physics Department is retiring voluntarily due to her ill health. She is a personification of loyalty, hardwork and reliability. She has piled up a sizeable experience of 27 years, which renders her with the ability to carry out her duties in the most effective way. She is respectful towards sisters, obliging to the staff and kind to the students. She always prefers to do her work herself and never shirks her duties. She is known for handling money properly and strictly abides by the values and regulations of JAC. Even at times of difficulties and struggle she never loses her temper or uses harsh words to anybody.

She is so experienced and thorough with experimental procedures that she even helps the students to clarify their doubts. During lab sessions, she handles all the equipments perfectly. She is very punctual and would report to duty ten minutes ahead of time. She plans and executes her work with care and concern.

The physics lab is her second home and she has been an integral element of all the memories connected to the physics department for decades now. Her presence and service will be sorely missed.

SILVER JUBILARIANS

The Silver bells of J.A.C. chimes with charm to announce the formidable service of the silver jubilarians.

Both Mrs. Antoniammal and Mrs. Subbammal @ Clara are special to the college. Since childhood they have bloomed and thrived under the patronage of the Sisters of St. Anne's in the premises of JAC.

Mrs. Antoniammal, Non-teaching staff has rendered her dedicated service to the college for a glowing 25 years. She is known for her hard work and prompt willingness to execute her duties. She has proved her mettle by balancing work and family in the most efficient way. With God's help, she braves the storms of life and always moves on with a positive approach.

Mrs. Subbammal @ Clara is known for her availability at the time of need. She is generous in serving her environment diligently. Her friendly approach fulfils the diverse range of needs and issues. She is much loved for her guileless innocence and childlike smile.

Our dear departed Mrs. S. little Flower, Office Assistant, served in this institution for 26 years. She is the manifestation of Compassion, selfless service, punctuality, duty consciousness. She is quite accessible to both teaching and non-teaching staff. May her soul rest in peace in the abode of the most merciful Lord God!

Let me wind up saying that we are strong in aspirations. Our Institution in all its pursuits, aims high and spares no pain to reach the highest standard. God sanctifies our work, lets fit into the topmost of the ladder from where we shall see smiles and sunshines. Yes! We have been strengthened and kindled with fires of enthusiasm.

The unity of different chords creates harmony. I thank, Rev. Sr. Dr. B.J. Queensly Jeyanthi, Mother Superior & Secretary, the Vice Principals Dr. R. Mary Mathelane and Dr. Sr.A.
