REPORT - 18.12.2024

In connection with the National Consumers Day Celebration, the Consumer Club of JAC organized an insightful awareness programme on the topic "The Role of Consumers in Road Safety Regulations" on 18th December 2024 at 3:00 p.m. in Ave Maria Hall. The event aimed to educate students about the importance of consumer responsibility in ensuring road safety and compliance with traffic regulations.

The programme was graced by Mr. M. Ragu, Sub-Inspector of Police, District Police Office, Theni District, who served as the resource person. With his extensive experience in law enforcement, Mr. Ragu delivered an enlightening programme, emphasizing the pivotal role consumers play in adhering to road safety norms, such as wearing helmets, seat belts, avoiding the use of mobile phones while driving, and following speed limits. He further elaborated on the legal provisions related to road safety and shared practical tips to prevent accidents. The programme also included interactive discussions where students actively participated, asking questions and sharing their thoughts on how they as consumers could contribute to reducing road mishaps. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Mr. M. Ragu for his valuable insights to all the participants for their enthusiastic involvement. The event proved to be highly informative, fostering awareness among students about their responsibilities as consumers in promoting road safety. 35 students participated and benefited through this Programme.

JANUARY, 2025

Title of the Programme : Are Advertisements Beneficial or Harmful to Consumers?

Date & Duration : 27th January, 2025 at 3:00 p.m

Brief description of the Event :

In connection with World Youth Day celebration, the Consumer Club of JAC organized a debate competition on the topic "Are Advertisements Beneficial or Harmful to Consumers?" (விளம்பரங்கள் நுகர்வோருக்கு பாதகமா? சாதகமா?) on 27th January, 2025 in Room No.28. The participants were divided into two teams and shared their views on both sides of the argument. Some argued that advertisements help consumers by providing information about new products and offers, making it easier to make informed choices. Others pointed out that advertisements can be misleading, encourage unnecessary spending, and influence young minds negatively. The debate was lively and informative, helping everyone understand the advantages and disadvantages of advertisements. In the end, the event was a great success, promoting awareness about consumer rights and responsible advertising.
