Report – 09.01.2026

The FINEARTS Club of Jayaraj Annappaikiam College for Women (Autonomous), Periyakulam, in collaboration with Manalmagudi Theatre Land and the School of Performing Arts, Pondicherry University, organized a modern drama titled "Yakkaikkalari" on 9 January 2026 at 2.00 p.m. on the college campus. The programme was conducted under the guidance of the Mother Superior Rev. Sr. M. Rajeenal, Secretary Rev. Sr. Dr. R. Shantha Mary Joshitta, and Principal Rev. Sr. Dr. S. Irudhaya Kalaiselvam, reflecting the institution's commitment to promoting Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) through performing arts.

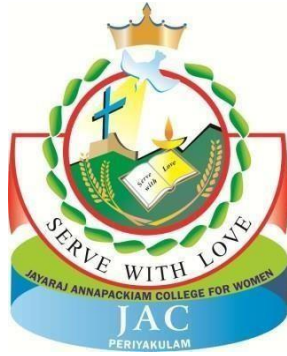

The programme commenced with a welcome address by Mrs. L. Savariyammal, IKS Cell Coordinator and Assistant Professor of Tamil, who highlighted theatre as a vital medium for cultural transmission and social consciousness rooted in indigenous traditions. The Chief Guest, Rev. Fr. Anbarasan, Principal, Arul Anandar Arts College, Karumathur, and Mr. M. Murugaboopathi, Director of Yakkaikkalari, were honoured by the management.

The performance of "Yakkaikkalari", directed by Mr. M. Murugaboopathi, powerfully conveyed themes of environmental degradation, the destruction of birds and animals, and humanity's responsibility towards nature, aligning with IKS values of ecological harmony and coexistence. The disciplined and expressive performance left a strong impact showing how traditional and contemporary theatre can effectively communicate indigenous wisdom. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Dr.J.Arul Irudhaya Jayanthi, Fine Arts Committee Coordinator and Assistant Professor of Tamil. The event stood as a meaningful IKS initiative, enriching environmental awareness, cultural sensibility, and artistic appreciation among the students.
