Purpose of the JACSAFA Club:

The Electoral Literacy Club is to educate and sensitize students and the youth about their voting rights and responsibilities. It aims to raise awareness of the importance of participating in elections and the electoral process, and to make informed and ethical voting choices. The club also encourages young people contribute to democratic procedures, promotes clean and fair elections, and fosters an understanding of responsible citizenship. By organizing awareness programs, workshops, and voter registration drives, the club helps develop an informed electorate among students and the community.
