Retiring Non-Teaching Staff:

“The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me.” — Psalm 28:7

Mrs. Gnanasoundari

According to Psalm 128:2: "You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you." In accordance with this divine word, we are immensely joyful to honor our beloved Mrs. Gnanasoundari, who today harvests the fruits of thirty years of dedicated labor.

Today, a "Spring season" bids us farewell. Having arrived at our college soil like a gentle breeze from Kerala, you have transformed this place into a magnificent garden and now reach your retirement with a heart full of contentment. You are the angel who traveled with the Kerala winds to turn our college grounds into a paradise! Even if you did not study Botany, you are one who knows the very pulse of plants. At the touch of your fingers, even withered plants bloom like the Chithirai moon. The roses, the jasmine, and the crotons are like children who understood your silent language.

To you, service in cleanliness is a penance, and gardening is a meditation. Whatever the task, there is a certain perfection in it—that is the unique trait you have taught us. Your calm nature, which remains unruffled even at the sight of a hissing snake, and your great love that treats even tiny insects like children, reveal you as a reflection of Mother Teresa.

With the blessings of the Sisters, you built a beautiful home and family, bringing three pearl-like children into this world and raising them with a deep sense of responsibility and duty as an exemplary mother. Even after thirty years of labor, you possess an undiminished youthful spirit and a brave heart that never falters. That speed with which you run to help everyone will forever remain your identity in our hearts.

"May the Lord grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your petitions!"

We wholeheartedly bless you to live for many more years in fame and health. May you always be surrounded by joy and the sweet chatter of your grandchildren in the garden of your family.

Mrs. Jeenath

"Great hearts that soar through hard work are forever blessed by the Almighty."

It is a moment of immense joy to appreciate our beloved Mrs. Jeenath, who has worked peacefully for the growth of our college and today bids us farewell with a heart full of contentment. Having been an integral part of this institution for the past 26 years, here are a few words about her...

She is a stellar role model when it comes to punctuality. Even before the clock strikes the hour, her footsteps are already at the office door! She is one who truly mastered the value of time and revered her duty as her very own eyes.

In the maintenance of office files, she has no equal. When blank papers touch her hands, they transform into organized and priceless assets. Her handwriting, as elegant as pearls, turns mere files into beautiful records. In the dedication she shows to preserving documents, she is truly one of a kind.

Her calm nature, kind words, and a sense of humor that cheers those around her are her true hallmarks. Having guided her family with great responsibility, she stands before us today as a portrait of success.

Though you retire from service, the legacy of your hard work and the path you have shown will forever remain rooted in this soil. Retirement is not the end - it is the beautiful beginning of a new journey! The smile that always graces your face will forever echo within these college walls.

We wholeheartedly wish you a long life filled with health and happiness together with your family.

Mrs. Leeko

"May the Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you!"

Time has flown by swiftly, and through your tireless perseverance, every task was completed to perfection. Every small effort has transformed into a guiding light and today, on this day of fulfillment, we celebrate you as a champion of hard work.

Born in the soil of Periyakulam as the fifth bright light among six daughters to Mr. Anthony and Mrs. Sirumani Ammal, you gained knowledge at Buddha Middle School. From a young age, you mastered the art of managing household responsibilities and understood the true greatness of the land.

Later, holding the hand of Mr. Napoleon of Thamaraikulam, you became the linchpin of a large family. You are a proud mother who raised five children to reach high positions in society.

In 1999, under the guidance of the Mother Superior of the College, Rev. Dr. Reginald, you stepped into our institution as a dedicated member of the maintenance staff. Even after 26 years, the pace of your work has never slowed. Clarity in words, extraordinary courage in action, and an unwavering mental strength that never falters are your unique identities.

Beyond your professional duties, you are an expert in the art of traditional medicine, possessing a wonderful skill for healing bodily ailments and relieving muscular sprains.

Life is not just a small line drawn for us; it is a masterpiece that we must carve and create ourselves. By turning the challenges of time into tools and breaking through every obstacle, you stand before us today as a pinnacle of self-confidence. Your thirty-two years of labor are not merely "work"—they are a period of true devotion. We take immense pride in honoring you as you retire today with dignity and a satisfied heart.

We wholeheartedly pray that in the years to come, you may be blessed by the Almighty with endless progress, perfect peace, immeasurable joy, and incomparable health.

Mrs. Victoria

"The Lord will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame.
You will be like a well-watered garden,
like a spring whose waters never fail."

Isaiah 58:11

Mrs. Victoria stands as a noble symbol of cleanliness and dedication within our college. It is a moment of great pride and joy to honor her, as she has treated this campus as her own home for 32 years, serving with absolute devotion and now reaching a well-earned retirement.

With her hands, she did not merely sweep away the dust of this campus; rather, with her smile and kindness, she swept away our weariness and revitalized our spirits. Raised under the nurturing care of the St. Anne's Congregation in Trichy, she has etched the pearls of her hard-earned sweat into every single brick of this college.

There was never any bitterness in her words. When challenges arose, she stood firm and unshakable as a mountain. Beyond her dedication to cleanliness, her multifaceted talents in dance and song transformed this campus into a joyful, vibrant family.

She poured her life into this soil, considering every drop of sweat as a flower offered to the Almighty. Today's retirement celebration is a reflection of her gentle nature, the depth of her affection, and the purity of her spirit.

Together with her husband, Mr. Selvaraj, and surrounded by the love of her children, Manoj Kumar and Nancy Manju, along with her cherished grandchildren, we pray that she lives a long and prosperous life, receiving every bounty through the infinite love of God.
