Brief description of the event : The Equal Opportunity Cell of Jayaraj Annapackiam College for Women (Autonomous), Periyakulam, organized a Scholarship Benefits and Application Awareness Programme on 29.09.2025 at 11.45 a.m. in Room No. 54. The programme was organized with the objective of creating awareness among students about various scholarship opportunities available to them. Dr. Mrs. Arul Iruthya Jeyanthi, Assistant Professor of Tamil, served as the Resource Person. She explained the importance of scholarships in supporting students' educational pursuits and reducing financial barriers. The Resource Person highlighted different types of scholarships available for eligible students. She explained the basic eligibility criteria and required documents for applying for scholarships. The students were guided on the procedures for registering and submitting scholarship applications. Special attention was given to the importance of providing accurate personal and academic information while applying. The students were also encouraged to make use of government and institutional scholarship schemes. The Resource Person clarified the doubts raised by the students regarding scholarship eligibility and application procedures. The programme helped students understand the benefits of timely scholarship applications. It also encouraged them to regularly check official notifications for new scholarship opportunities. The Equal Opportunity Cell emphasized its role in facilitating equal access to educational support. The programme motivated students to overcome financial constraints through available scholarship assistance. The interactive session enabled the participants to gain practical knowledge about the application process. The students actively participated and listened attentively throughout the programme. The session created greater awareness about the financial support available for higher education. The programme was useful in empowering students to make informed decisions regarding scholarships. Overall, the Scholarship Benefits and Application Awareness Programme was informative, purposeful, and beneficial to the students. The programme concluded with appreciation to the Resource Person and all those who contributed to its successful organization.
